"The Royal Baking Powder is composed of pure and wholesome ingredients. It does not contain either alum or phosphates, or other injurious substances."

"The Royal Baking Powder is undoubtedly the purest and most reliable baking powder offered to the public."

"The Royal Baking Powder is purest in quality and highest in strength of any baking powder of which I have knowledge."

"All Alum Baking Powders, no matter how high their strength, are to be avoided as dangerous. Phosphate powders liberate their gas too freely, or under climatic changes suffer deterioration."

The Knights Templar

Great Preparations Being Made in Washington

FOR THE GRAND ENCAMPMENT.

The Twenty-Second Triennial Conclave Meets in the National Capital This Week—The Knights Already Arriving. Program of the Week—Other Washington News.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—Preparations for the holding of the twenty-second Triennial Conclave of the Grand Encampment of Knights Templar in the National capital during the coming week are completed. The general aspect of the city indicates an occasion of unusual importance. Many of the streets are in gala attire and the decorations are probably the richest and most varied ever seen here on a public occasion. Banners of welcome are stretched across the streets, while everywhere is seen the "Maltese cross."

The first advance guard of visiting Sir Knights began to arrive yesterday, and in the past twenty-four hours every arriving train came laden with plumed knights to attend the triennial convocation. The sound of martial music and the marching hosts in beautiful uniforms has enlivened the air and presented beautiful sights in the principal streets all through the day and late last night. Scores of commanderies, many of the members accompanied by their wives and members of their families and invited guests have already arrived, and are safely and comfortably quartered at the various hotels and boarding houses.

The program in brief for the week is as follows:

Monday—Reception of visiting commanderies.

Tuesday—Grand parade; escort of grand encampment to Masonic temple; excursion on Potomac.

Wednesday—Exhibition and competitive drill; excursion to Mount Vernon; reception by President Harrison, 8 to 11 p. m.

Thursday—Visits to public buildings and monument; grand barbecue; rally at Mrs. Logan's in the evening.

Friday—Visits to public buildings; excursion to Mount Vernon; banquet at Willard's hotel.

Saturday—Closing ceremonies at encampment.

Devotional exercises were held in many of the churches of the city yesterday and last night, to which the Sir Knights and their ladies were cordially invited, and as a result many of the churches were crowded with the visitors.

Chief of the Bureau of Navigation.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—Rear Admiral L. A. Kimberly is being pushed by his friends for Commodore Walker's place as chief of the bureau of navigation. Well-posted men about the navy department do not believe that he will succeed, as it is against all precedent to appoint an officer of that grade to the position. Admirals Nichols and Hammon were chiefs of the bureau while they were rear admirals. But their promotion came while in office, and they retired from the navy department shortly after their commissions to the new grade were made out.

Dr. How's Toast.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—A farewell dinner was given Saturday night at Welcker's to Dr. F. T. Howe, by a number of his fellow workers, previous to his departure for Toledo, O., where he is to become managing editor of The Blade. At the conclusion of a very enjoyable meal, and some speech making, the dinner ended with a toast to Dr. Howe's success in his new field of journalism.

SEVEN HOURS OF AGONY.

A Chinaman Made to Suffer for Not Betraying His Employer.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—Lee Ging, Lee Ling and Lee Hi entered the laundry of Lee Lang at 207 Fifth street Saturday night, and finding Lee Hing, an employee, alone in the place, began to smoke cigarettes and talk with him. Suddenly the three visitors pounced upon Hing and ordered him to show them where Lang kept his money. Hing refused, whereupon he was bound hand and foot, gagged, and tickled about the nose, lips and ears with feathers and slips of papers. The also tied Hing's head to his hands and feet by his queue. Though suffering greatly Hing still refused to betray his employer. The three visitors finally left him and hunted the shop until they found a chest, which they broke open, securing $100 and some gold ornaments. Giving Hing a few parting kicks they departed.

Hing lay in his helpless and painful position seven hours, when he was discovered and released by an early customer Sunday morning. The police obtained his story and soon had the three thieves under arrest. Some of the money and ornaments were found in their possession. Hing is quite ill from the effects of his maltreatment. He is kept in custody by the police, who fear that if allowed to go the Highlanders will wreak vengeance upon him for informing against his countrymen.

Assaulted, Robbed and Left for Dead.

BURLINGTON, N. Y., Oct. 7.—Arnold Chambers, a resident of Buddtown, was unmercifully beaten and probably fatally stabbed by tramps Saturday while he was returning from market. His assailants, one of whom was a woman, robbed him of his supplies, his money and valuables, and left him lying on the roadway with an ugly cut in his neck. A posse of citizens are in pursuit.

INDIANA COUNTERFEITERS.

A Baptist Preacher the Leader of the Gang Confesses.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 7.—The Orange county farmers, who were arrested Friday for counterfeiting, were brought here. The leader of the band is Henry Crow, an itinerant Baptist preacher. He admitted his guilt and made a full confession, implicating all the men under arrest except two. The gang has been making counterfeit coin for two years, and confederates in half a dozen states have been regularly supplied with it by express.

It was not circulated in the immediate vicinity of the operations except by one man, named Walsh, who traveled through the country as a huckster. One of the members of the gang, Robert Williams, is 33 years old. It was at his house that much of the work was done. On account of his extreme age he was released from custody on signing his own bond. All of the others were held.

Another Gang Run In.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 7.—The secret service officers raided a gang of counterfeiters south of this city yesterday and captured Isaac Reynolds, John Lucas and J. M. McBride, the latter an old offender, and his confederates farmers. After the capture Lucas' house was searched, and the mold and $140 in spurious coin were found. The gang has been making $10 "gold" coins, and a number of them have been put into circulation in this city and Johnson county. McBride made a full confession, saying that they had been engaged in the business for several months, and had got rid of a large amount of the stuff in this state, Kentucky, Ohio and Illinois.

REV. DR. TALMAGE.

He Will Soon Start for a Tour Through the Holy Land.

BROOKLYN, Oct. 7.—Dr. Talmage opened his sermon in the tabernacle yesterday with these remarks: "With the hearty consent of the elders and trustees of this church, I leave on Wednesday morning, Oct. 30, on the City of Paris, for the Holy Land, Palestine, to be gone about two months. I am sure all my congregation will unite with the officers in giving their consent when I tell you why I go. First, my object is educational to myself and congregation. I want to see the places associated with our Lord's life and death. I believe I can make my pulpit work far more efficient when I have seen, with my own eyes, Bethlehem and Nazareth and Jerusalem and Calvary and all the other places connected with the Savior's ministry. Those places cannot be visited healthfully in the summer and in time of usual vacation. What I learn and see you will learn and see when I come back. My second reason for going is that I am writing the life of Christ, and I can be more accurate and graphic when I have been an eye witness of the sacred place."

Among the places at which Dr. Talmage will probably preach during this extended trip are Rome, Jerusalem, Nazareth, Bethlehem, Bethany, Samaria, Joppa, Athens and Corinth.

FATAL FIRE.

Four Men Lose Their Lives in a Burning Restaurant.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 7.—A special to The Picayune from Winona, Miss., says: About 3 o'clock Sunday morning R. E. Latts' two-story restaurant building was burned, and four out of the nine men who occupied sleeping apartments in the upper story were burned to death. The dead are A. Thomas, merchant of Cumberland, Miss.; J. L. Lawry and Lon Crouch, merchants of Hopenenden, Miss.; Paul Williams, farmer of Sun Creek, Miss.

They were all prominent citizens in their respective communities, and were on their way home from Memphis, where they had been purchasing goods. The other five occupants of the upper story escaped by climbing down the awning or jumping. A. J. Cook and W. L. Alford, who jumped, were badly injured. The pecuniary loss is not large.

The Delegates Seized in Boston.

BOSTON, Oct. 7.—The delegates to the Pan-American congress were taken to Deer Island yesterday as guests of the city, the mayor, aldermen and leading citizens acting as escort. After inspecting the public institutions dinner was served, the mayor presiding, and speeches being made by several delegates. The party then returned by boat to the city, and after a rest at the Hotel Vendome, they were taken for a drive through the suburbs. Luncheon was served at the residence of John L. Gardner.

1.1 Mills Burned.

YANKTON, Dak., Oct. 7.—The Yankton linseed oil mill and warehouse, with two cars loaded with flax, were destroyed by fire yesterday morning, causing a loss of $30,000, on which there was an insurance of $3,000. The mill was in the linseed oil trust, and was owned by Archer & Howe, of Minneapolis, Omaha, Sioux City and Yankton capitalists.

The Miners' Trouble Not Settled.

SPRING VALLEY, Ill., Oct. 7.—At a conference held Saturday in Chicago between W. L. Scott and a representative of the miners, Mr. Scott agreed to pay the miners here eighty-two and a half cents per ton. The leaders of the miners' union here will not be likely to accept these terms, and trouble is anticipated if an attempt to resume work is made.

Monument Dedicated.

GETTYSBURG, Pa., Oct. 7.—The monument of the Fifty-seventh New York regiment was dedicated Sunday, Col. James W. Butte, of New York city, delivering the oration. Mr. James Morrow unveiled the stone.

Germans Celebrate

The Two Hundred and Sixty Anniversary

OF THE PIONEERS' LANDING.

The Day Observed in Philadelphia in a Very Elaborate Manner By the Various German Societies—A Monster Parade in St. Louis—German Day Elsewhere.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 7.—The two hundred and sixty anniversary of the landing of the German pioneer settlers in Philadelphia was celebrated Sunday afternoon by a large meeting at the hall of the German society at Marshall and Spring Garden streets. Dr. Gross, of the German hospital, presided and spoke in German and English. Addresses were also made in German by Professor Zidenslicker and Dr. Kellner, and in English by City Solicitor Warwick. Over 4,000 people were present.

The musical portion of the program was rendered by a large orchestra under the direction of Paul Sautz and a chorus of 300 male and 150 female voices, representing the three principal musical societies of the city. The celebration of the event was the most elaborate which has taken place in this city since the grand bi-centennial jubilee in 1883.

Steps have been taken by the German society here to appropriately celebrate the day each succeeding year, and a subscription has been started for the purpose of erecting a grand memorial monument on the banks of the Wissahickon, overlooking the spot where the first pioneer families settled and formed the nucleus of that portion of the city, still known as Germantown.

Monster Parade in St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 7.—"German Day" was celebrated here yesterday in a notable way. The principal feature was a monster parade, there being over 25,000 men in line. The line of march was from the southern part of the city, to the heart, passing the court house, where the parade was reviewed by Mayor Noonan and other officials. All religious and political features were excluded and no flags except the German and American National flags were permitted. Last night there was a fine display of fireworks upon the river, followed by excursions and ball on steamers. A monster meeting assembled in Music Hall, exposition building, where patriotic speeches were made.

Cold Weather Interferes at Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 7.—The German Day celebration at this place was postponed on account of the severe cold weather. An attempt will be made to carry out the program of exercises some time during the coming week.

THE CLAN-NA-GAEL.

The Society Divided in Two Factions and a Convention Called.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 7.—The four members of the executive of the Clann-na-Gael, who represent the Cronin faction as opposed to the Nationalists' faction, have issued a call for a convention of all the camps throughout the country. The call is signed by Luke A. Dillon and O'Mergher Condon, of this city; James Tierney, of New York; and Mortimer Scanlon, of Chicago. There are five members of the executive, five of whom are Nationalists, and who, therefore, have the control. These five have come out in a counter-circular, forbidding the camps to send delegates to the proposed convention, as the call, they allege is unauthorized and illegal. The purpose of the convention called by Messrs. Dillon, Condon, Scanlon and Tierney is stated to be for the purpose of reorganizing the order.

The circular calls for a delegate from each camp, and blanks are enclosed for filling in the name of the delegate and alternate elected, which are to be forwarded, as well as other communications, to "E. Kemper, Box 568, Philadelphia, postoffice." It is claimed that the name Kemper is not the real name of any one connected with the movement, but is assumed. The circular goes on to say that upon receipt of these names, credentials passport and the time and place of holding the convention will be sent in return. It is understood that this city has been decided upon, but it is not definitely known. Luke A. Dillon has been designated as the presiding officer.

Death of a Prominent Lawyer.

CAMBRIDGE, Md., Oct. 7.—Daniel M. Henry, Jr., died yesterday, aged 42 years. Mr. Henry was the leader of the bar of Dorchester county, and was state's attorney a few years ago. He was the grandson of the first United States senator from Maryland.

Fatal Boiler Explosion.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Oct. 7.—At 11:30 o'clock last night a boiler exploded in the Galaxy mills and killed assistant engineer Frank Banks and helper Joseph Evans. The explosion was caused by impaired machinery.

Edison Back in New York.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—Thomas A. Edison and wife, Mrs. U. S. Grant and Miss Frelinghuysen were among the passengers arriving by the steamship La Champagne, from Havre, yesterday.

Admiral Porter Reported Sick.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Oct. 7.—Admiral Porter is reported sick at Jamestown. There is no telegraphic communication with that place, and nothing can be learned as to his condition.

BASE BALL.

New York Carries Off the Pennant of the League—Standing of the Clubs.

The championship of the League has been decided and it goes to New York. The League race this season has been one of the best contested of any in the history of the organization. It is rarely that two clubs can be found that are so evenly matched as the Boston and New Yorks. Not until the last game had been played was the question of superiority decided. The following is the ranking of the clubs:

NATIONAL LEAGUE
	Won.	Lost.
New York	82	43
Boston	83	45
Chicago	67	65
Philadelphia	63	64
Cleveland	62	73
Pittsburgh	61	71
Indianapolis	59	75
Washington	42	84

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION.

The season for the American Association is drawing to a close, there being but a few more games to be played. The championship has not yet been decided, but the Brooklyn club has the best show at the present time. However, it may be changed, but in all probability the season will end with the clubs ranking as at present. The following is the standing up to and including Sunday's games:

SUNDAY'S GAMES.
	Won.	Lost.
Brooklyn	88	42
St. Louis	85	44
Athletic	71	55
Baltimore	69	53
Cincinnati	71	61
Columbus	56	76
Kansas City	53	78
Louisville	20	105

At St. Louis—St. Louis 9, Kansas City 4.
At Brooklyn—Brooklyn 9, Athletics 0.

SATURDAY'S BASE BALL.—Cincinnati 8, Louisville 11; Baltimore 10, Columbus 10; Athletic 10, Brooklyn 2; St. Louis 7, Kansas City 2; Pittsburgh 6, Boston; Indianapolis 15, Washington 6; Chicago 3, Philadelphia 2; New York 5, Cleveland 3.

The exhibition season, which begins immediately after the last championship game has been played, will be one of exceeding brilliancy. The first games to be played will be three for the championship of Ohio between Cleveland, Columbus and Cincinnati. Two games will be played in each city by each club, and the winner of the race will be presented with a pennant costing $100, emblematic of the state championship. Following that series will be one between the Indianapolis and Cincinnati clubs for the Hoosier and Buckeye state championship.

SENSATION IN ST. LOUIS.

A Well Known Business Man Brutally Beaten and Robbed.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 7.—About 1 o'clock Sunday morning there appeared at the Third district police station, corner of Jefferson avenue and Dayton street, Ed. Klosterman, a saloonkeeper, whose place of business is located at 2602 Cass avenue and Alexander Hunt, a friend of Klosterman's, bearing the unconscious body of Capt. D. P. Slattery, one of the best known business men of the city. Klosterman told a most sensational story, as follows:

About 1 o'clock, he said, he started upstairs to the rooms occupied by himself and wife, over the saloon, accompanied by Hunt. His wife ran from her bed room crying out that there was a man in her room. Slattery followed the woman out and attempted to pass the two men. He was without coat, hat and vest. Hunt struck him and he fell down stairs. Klosterman and Hunt then, as they claim, went down, and finding Capt. Slattery unconscious, immediately took him up and carried him to the police station, some two blocks away.

A short time afterward there was an unknown young man came in with a gold watch and chain and $1 in money, which he said he had found in Capt. Slattery's vest. It was claimed by Klosterman and Hunt that he found Capt. Slattery invading his wife's room for disreputable purposes. The captain's friends on the other hand say that he had some $1,800 worth of jewelry on his person and think it a case of attempted robbery.

Powderly's Program.

CHICAGO, Oct. 7.—Mr. Powderly left here Sunday evening for Hamilton, Ont., where he will speak to-night. The original program included a series of speeches in the west, but these have been abandoned, and after his address in Hamilton the Knights of Labor chief will go to Scranton for a few days to work upon his report for the general assembly, which meets in Atlanta in four weeks. On the 14th Mr. Powderly will go to Philadelphia to hold a conference with the chiefs and secretaries of the federation of labor unions on the eight-hour question. The remainder of the executive board is yet in session in St. Louis.

County Seat Contest Decided.

TOPEKA, Kan., Oct. 7.—The supreme court has handed down an opinion in the famous Gray county seat contest between the towns of Cimarron and Ingalls. The decision, which declared in favor of Ingalls, was written by Judge Valentine and sustained by all the judges except Chief Justice Horton, who submitted a voluminous dissenting opinion. The chief justice severely condemned A. T. Soule, the New York millionaire, who established the town of Ingalls, for bribing and bulldozing the voters of the county to vote in favor of Ingalls.

Heavy Snow Storm in New York.

LOOKPORT, N. Y., Oct. 7.—At 1 o'clock Sunday morning the rain of the night changed to snow, which fell to the depth of six inches, greatly damaging shade and fruit trees. The snow storm continued nearly three hours.

MONDAY, OCT. 7, 1889.

The Democrats of Newport won in the city election Saturday. They carried wards that have heretofore been reliably Republican. The victory gives them full control of municipal affairs for the next two years.

It was Deacon Richard Smith, a prominent Republican who made the remark that if Governor Foraker was renominated for a third term "his political throat would be cut from ear to ear."

The third term weight is a heavy weight for any candidate to carry.

HON. JAMES E. CAMPBELL has accepted Governor Foraker's challenge for a joint debate, and it will be a lively discussion if it ever comes off. The Democratic nominee knows enough about Foraker's reign in Ohio to make things very uncomfortable for the Buckeye Governor.

THE St. Louis Republican openly charges that the men in Missouri to whom President Harrison entrusted the dispensation of federal patronage have made a sale of the offices. It gives the names of the sellers, the names of the buyers and the amount paid, and wants to know what the President is going to do about it.

THE South is getting along pretty well, thank you. In 1880 there were only 142 cotton mills in operation in that section. Now there are 339. The increase in mill consumption during the same period has been 253 per cent. South Carolina is the banner State, having consumed more raw cotton than Georgia, which ranks next.

JUDGE GRESHAM is reported as saying that the Democracy will nominate Grover Cleveland for President in 1892 and that "he can see no possible way by which Mr. Cleveland can be defeated." There are people in this country—Democrats and Republicans—who think Cleveland and Gresham would compose a ticket that would sweep the country from stem to stern.—Louisville Times.

HERE are some more good words for Hon. James E. Campbell, of Ohio. The Putnam County Vidette (Republican) says: "The Democratic nominee for Governor is a hustler, a soldier and a mighty fine gentleman personally. And notwithstanding he has got into a bad crowd politically he will be the hardest man to down the party could have put up. The Republicans will not have time to do much nose picking this campaign."

Mexico and the South American nations have an area of 7,908,144 square miles and 45,715,178 population. By every consideration of business sagacity the trade of those countries should be controlled by the United States. They have to sell what we want to buy, and we have to sell what they want to buy. And yet this country sells these South American nations only 11 per cent. of the goods they import yearly. They go to Europe for 89 per cent. of their goods. They get six hundred thousand barrels of flour yearly, it is stated, from Austria.

Hungary. If it were not for the restrictions to trade, in the shape of high tariff, these nations might come to the United States for all this immense quantity of flour, and thousand of dollars worth of other goods. As the Louisville Times remarks: "The farmers from the West should produce the wheat, and the millers of the West should manufacture it into flour, to supply all American markets, but the tariff robber stands at our ports and calls upon trade to stand and deliver. Subsidy to steamships is not going to remedy the evil. To invite trade we must reform our tariff to a purely revenue basis."

SINCE Hon. Jas. E. Campbell fired that Topp bomb into the Republican ranks at Cincinnati, Governor Foraker doesn't seem to be in a very great hurry to fix up arrangements for that joint debate. Perhaps J. B. is afraid that Mr. Campbell has a few bombs in reserve.

MR. JOSEPH A. DIENER, of the Fifth ward, is a candidate for member of the City Council at the approaching election. His announcement appears in this issue.

CRIPPLED FOR LIFE.

Little Duke Hannah Attempts to Board a Freight Train at Dover and is Horribly Maimed.

Crippled for life. Such is the terrible result of little Duke Hannah's attempt to board a freight train.

The accident happened yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock at Dover.

The unfortunate lad is about 11 years old, and is a son of Mr. Oscar Hann, a well-known citizen of that place. Duke and some of his little companions were down in the lower end of the town playing when the first section of No. 73 west-bound C. & O. freight came along. Conductor Woodward in charge. The train was running slowly, preparatory to taking the siding to let the F. V. pass. Young Hannah attempted to board one of the cars to "steal a ride," but made a misstep, and the next instant the wheels of one car had passed over both his feet. No one saw the accident. The cries of the child attracted the attention of Agent Frisbie, Conductor Woodward and others, who hurried to the scene. They found the lad's right foot cut off at the ankle joint—hanging by shreds of the flesh and skin of the heel. The left foot was crushed to a pulp at the ankle.

The child was carried to his parents' home, where Dr. Wylie, of Ripley, assisted by Drs. Mahlon Smith and Fletcher Smith, of Dover, afterwards amputated the stub of the right foot a few inches above the ankle. The left foot will, the physicians think, have to be amputated also, but the operation has been deferred.

The lad's condition is favorable, and he will most likely recover from the terrible accident.

The father of the boy intended leaving to-day for Frankfort, where he is employed to erect several buildings for the Kentucky Midland Railroad, but the calamity prevented his departure.

The accident should serve as a timely warning to other lads who make a practice of "stealing rides."

Here and There.

Mr. Hanson Penn Diltz, of Hopkinsville, is visiting the family of Mr. A. J. McDougle. His new novel "Dunleath Abby," will be out in a few weeks.

Miss Clara Bearley left Friday to visit the family of General Ewing, of Murfreesboro, Tenn. She will spend some time with friends at Nashville, also, before she returns.

Messrs. George C. Keith and B. A. Wallingford, Jr., arrived home Saturday from their European trip. Mr. Keith left that evening with Maysville Commandery No. 10, K. T., to attend the triennial convocation at Washington City, and on his return will leave for Boston to resume his studies at Harvard Law School.

On to Washington.

A big crowd was at the depot Saturday night to see the Sir Knights start on their pilgrimage to the triennial convocation at Washington City. For some cause or other, the special did not get away until nearly 11 o'clock. The train consisted of a baggage car, day coach and two sleepers, drawn by engine 159.

Below is a correct list of the Sir Knights, those marked with an asterisk () being accompanied by their wives: F. S. Owens, E. A. Robinson, R. Lee Browning, W. C. Miner, John C. Lovel,* G. S. Wall, John W. Watson, E. H. Martin,* J. D. Dye, E. P. Browning,* G. W. Rogers, L. Roser, W. LaRue Thomas,* George C. Keith, W. P. Coons, Dr. J. T. Strode,* Thomas Keith, all of Maysville; S. E. Mastin, Germantown, and J. A. LaRue, Shawhan. The party were joined by other members of the Commandery at points east of here. Haucke's Reed and Brass Band accompanied the party. H. Lloyd Watson, of this city, and Judge Dye, of Sardis, are taking in the trip.

THE Paris Kentuckian-Citizen in speaking of the marriage of Miss Linda Chinn and Captain Geisreiter by Rev. J. M. Evans at the LaRue home near Shawhan last week says: "This was the most affecting ceremony we ever witnessed. Mr. Evans spoke of the sacredness of the marriage tie, and how dearly the orphan bride was beloved by himself and all her relatives, until unconsciously bride and guests all shed tears, but they seemed rather of joy than of sorrow."

REV. GEORGE P. HAYS, of Kansas City, a brother of Rev. John S. Hays, D. D., of Hayswood, will take a trip to Palestine, starting February 18, 1890. Several Cincinnati ladies and gentlemen will accompany the expedition and remain in the Holy Land three months.

The price of locomotives is very much cheaper than it used to be, and the best quality, weighing fifty tons, can now be bought for $9,000 as against $11,000 two years ago. Engines suitable for passenger service, weighing 91,000 pounds, can be manufactured at a cost of $8,700.

GEORGETOWN, Ky., is to have a pork packing establishment which will use up from 1,500 to 2,000 hogs a year, and it proposes to make a specialty of sugar-cured hams, cured in the good old fashioned way. Such hams are worth about 25 per cent. more than the steam-cured hams of the city.

ANNOUNCEMENT has been made of the approaching marriage of Miss Louise Ingalls, daughter of President M. E. Ingalls, of the C. C. C. and St. L. and C. and O. roads, and J. A. Bernard, son of the President of the O. and M. Young Barnard has lately been appointed General Manager of the Ohio, Indiana and Western Road, the latest addition to the Vanderbilt syndicate.

THE members of Haucke's Band were "ticked to death" Saturday evening with their new suits, which were handed over to them fresh from the Red Corner's tailoring department. The order for the suits was given only a week or so ago. Captain Martin was determined, however, that the boys should not be disappointed—that they should have the clothes for the Washington trip—and all his force of tailors was pressed into service and the work was done. Made of rich brown cloth, the suits are as nobly as any that ever came from the tailor's hands. And they are perfect fits, as not even a button had to be altered.

Election in France.

Voting Takes Place in 186 Constituencies.

RESULT OF THE SECOND BALLOT.

Two-Thirds of the Contested Seats Have Gone to the Republicans—Boulanger Deserted By His Former Friends. Many Lives Lost in a Hurricane on the Island of Sardinia—Other Dispatches From Abroad.

PARIS, Oct. 7.—The second ballots, which took place in 186 constituencies in France Sunday, excited the least possible interest throughout France and in Paris itself with nothing approaching the usual election excitement. The feeling seems to have become general that the republic is now firmly established for many years, and whatever may be the result France will maintain her existing form of government intact.

Boulanger is no longer a factor in any French political problem. Those who have heretofore been his warmest political friends are now ready to accept an explanation of the general's disastrous overthrow at the polls, which is anything but creditable to their former chief. Utterly unable to comprehend that the French people should have deliberately repudiated themselves and their revolutionary schemes, they now insist that their defeat is due entirely to the failure of Gen. Boulanger to use the large sums of money which had been given him to aid in carrying the elections for the purposes for which they were intended.

It is openly charged that the general has been quietly stowing away the millions of francs which his wealthy dupes poured into his coffers while he let the elections take care of themselves. Boulanger takes pains to create the impression that he is impoverished, but his disgusted allies make no secret of their belief that he has carefully nursed his bank account at the expense of his own and their political prospects.

The second ballot progressed very quietly everywhere. The followers of Boulanger appear to have deserted his standard quite generally, and it is estimated that quite two-thirds of the 186 seats contested for the second time have gone to the Republicans. Even the hitherto staunch Boulangerist Laguerre no longer uses the name of his former chief in describing his political faith, but calls himself a Revisionist. In this course he is followed by many of the general's former supporters.

In the first Seine district M. Guyot, minister of public works, is elected, and in the eleventh M. Floquet, the premier. M. Lamsant, the Boulangerist, is elected in the eighteenth. In Bordeaux two Boulangerists have been returned.

The totals for Paris give the Republicans 22 and the Boulangerists 14 deputies elected. Among the Republicans returned are M. M. Lockroy, Millerand, Dreyfus, Paspail, Lanesau and Marmalan. Among the Boulangerists elected are Dr. Merr, who defeated M. Bosly, and M. Senne, who defeated Heredia. In the eighth Seine district, M. Marin, Conservative Boulangerist, defeated the well known Deputy Passy, and in the ninth Emile Ferry defeated M. Bervy, Conservative. In the Belleville district the Socialist Dumay defeated M. Rochefort. Lyons returns three Republicans.

In the city of Paris the total rebalot poll stands: Republicans, 203,000; Boulangerists, 209,000.

The returns from the provincial districts come in slowly. The latest figures give a total of eighty-four deputies elected by the Republicans and thirty-two by all shades of their opponents.

In Toulouse M. Constans, minister of the interior, defeats M. Susini.

In Bordeaux ex-Minister Raynal has defeated his Conservative opponent.

The latest returns give the results in 133 districts. Of these the Republicans have been successful in 108 and the Boulangerists or other opponents of the Republicans in forty-five.

Religion and Custom Interfere.

LONDON, Oct. 7.—London's lord mayor-elect, Mr. Isaacs, is brought face to face with what seems an insurmountable difficulty. Nov. 9 is the date for the lord mayor's show, and this year it falls on a Saturday. Isaacs, who is a devout Jew, cannot lawfully either ride or walk in the procession, and as a lord mayor's show without a lord mayor would be something of an innovation, the outcome is watched with considerable interest. A compromise of some sort, in which religion and custom will each be called upon to yield something is probable.

Delicate Work for Diplomats.

VIENNA, Oct. 7.—Considerable excitement is caused in Vienna by the report that the Prince of Montenegro has ceded a portion of the bay of Antivari to Russia, and that the czar has already given orders for the establishment of a naval depot there and the building of a fort. The Austrian foreign office has addressed inquiries on the subject to St. Petersburg and to Cettinje, and the matter promises to furnish delicate work for the diplomats.

ROME, Oct. 7.—A terrible hurricane swept the entire length of the island of Sardinia yesterday, leveling many villages and doing incalculable damage to property. Hundreds of people were buried in the ruins of their own homes and thirty are known to have lost their lives.

The Queen Losing Her Popularity.

BELGRADE, Oct. 7.—Queen Natalie appears to be losing something of her popularity in Belgrade owing to her absolute refusal to listen to any proposals of the regents looking to an amicable settlement of the vexed questions raised by her arrival at the Serbian capital.

Miss Beaumont Falls in the River.

LONDON, Oct. 7.—The fair American, Miss Beaumont, while descending in her parachute at an exhibition yesterday, fell into the river Tyne, but was fished out without serious injury.

THE CLOSING DAY.

List of Premiums Awarded at Germantown Fair Saturday—A Successful Meeting.

The Germantown fair closed Saturday a big crowd was present, the attendance being about the largest on any day of the meeting. The fair was a success in every respect. The weather was fine throughout, the attendance was good, especially on closing days, and the exhibition was up to any of the past. Following is a list of the premiums awarded Saturday:

Best model stallion; J. H. McCormick Fleming County.

Best model mare; J. E. Wells, Mason County.

Best model gelding; J. R. Rich, Covington.

Best pair of harness geldings; Carpenter Bros., Millersburg.

Best pair of harness horses, regardless of color, sex or owner; Kenney & Mullins, Bracken and Kenton Counties.

TOBACCO PREMIUMS.

Cutting leaf; first premium; Wm. Hickey, Bracken County; second premium, Norris & Spencer.

White fillers; first, premium, Darius Norris; second, premium G. W. Jett, Harrison County; third, premium, Norris & Spencer.

"CHIC'S" NOTES.

The crowd was, according to tickets sold, eighteen thousand. Not a quarrel or racket during the whole fair. James Strode, as Chief of Police, was a dandy.

Col. Herndon, of the Bourbon News, was present, and as a hustler for items he's hard to beat.

Judge Tom Miller, veteran bell-ringer, has an offer from the Swiss Bell ringers and thinks seriously of accepting. Every thing lovely—etc. We still claim the boss fair of the State.

J. D. Riddle, of Kenton County, pronounced this the "best fair and better in attendance than any fair he had ever attended." And he has attended twenty-three this season.

Many horses have died in Daviess County recently, and it has been found that they were killed by "ticks" which eat through the skin, buried themselves in the flesh and literally bled them to death. The pests were brought there by Texas ponies, of which large numbers have been sold in that locality.

The largest number of cattle ever received at the Omaha stock yards in one day was 5,031, on September 11th.

WASHINGTON.

There were many favorable comments in the community over the perfection of the attendance of the undertakers at the burial of James Mannen, all indicating that the new firm of McIlvain, Humphreys & Bramel are prepared for and understand their business.

The life-like appearance of the corpse attracted general attention. This was due to the skillful handling by Mr. George Griffin, of Cincinnati, the funeral director and embalmer of the above firm, who is without a rival in his business. We are glad to know the new firm are fast gaining a patronage commensurate with their merit.
